

Emily was the recipient of the 2016 Harold Zeh Award with the Portland ACS section. She completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Portland in 2017, receiving her B.S. in Chemistry with minors in Music and Spanish. Emily then completed her Master of Arts in Teaching at the University of Portland in 2018. She is now working as a high school Chemistry teacher in the Portland Public School District.

